

Angie Tinley, The Hive

'The most proud project within my group to date would have to be the Young Peoples Counselling Service. It been phenomenal what's happened, we didn't expect it to take off the way it did. The fact we are out there helping all the young people that need counselling is fantastic.'

'One of the main frustrations of the YPCS is, because it is such a specialised target, it's really hard to get funding to support it.'