New Booklet from Jobcentre Plus

Jobcentre Plus has just produced a new booklet about volunteering whilst on benefits (reference code JSAL 7JP). This focuses on the advantages of volunteering whilst on benefits; for example, it emphasises that employers look favourably on volunteering as it shows that potential employees have something to offer and can show commitment, and that making a positive contribution can really boost a person's self-confidence.

The booklet contains useful information on how to find voluntary opportunities, and has contact details for various volunteering organisations. It also tells you what you need to take into account regarding benefits, such as informing your local Jobcentre Plus office when you begin volunteering. Volunteering should NOT affect your benefits as long as you do not receive payments other than for expenses incurred.

Copies are available from Volunteering Pembrokeshire or from your local Jobcentre Plus office.

U Can!

The U Can! Project aims to empower and support Disabled People to become involved in social, leisure, educational and work related activities inclusive of voluntary opportunities within their local community. Disabled People are either sign-posted to an appropriate organisation or linked with one of our trained volunteers who provide support on a fortnightly basis to help clients become involved in such activities and as a consequence grow in confidence and meet new people. The project is about 'enabling' the client to have the confidence to make new contacts and friends through this support.

For more information about accessing the U Can! project service or about volunteering for U Can!, please contact Rachel Gibby on 01437 769422.

Llyfryn Newydd y Ganolfan Byd Gwaith

Mae'r Ganolfan Byd Gwaith newydd gynhyrchu llyfryn newydd am wirfoddoli pan fydd rhywun yn derbyn budd-daliadau (cyfeirnod y llyfryn yw JSAL 7JP). Canolbwyntia ar fanteision gwirfoddoli pan fydd rhywun yn derbyn budd-daliadau; er enghraifft, pwysleisia fod cyfleoedd yn edrych yn ffafriol ar wirfoddoli gan ei fod yn dangos fod gan ddarpar weithwyr rywbeth i'w gynnig a bod gwaddol ymroddiad, ac y gall gwneud cyfraniad positif fod yn hwb i hunanhyder yr unigolyn.

Mae yn y llyfryn wybodaeth ddefnyddiol am sut i ddod o hyd i gyfleoedd gwirfoddoli a manylion er mwyn cysylltu ag amryfal fudiadau gwirfoddoli. Dywed hefyd beth sy'n rhaid ichi ei ystyried o ran budd-daliadau, megis hysbysu eich Canolfan Byd Gwaith lleol pan fyddwch yn dechrau gwirfoddoli. Ni ddylai gwirfoddoli effeithio ar eich budd-daliadau dim ond ichi benderfynu taliadau heblaw am y treuliau yr aethoch iddynt.

Gellir cael copïau o swyddfa Gwirfoddoli Sir Benfro neu o swyddfa leol y Ganolfan Byd Gwaith.

Gobeithio, fe ellwch!

Nod Prosiect U Can! yw rhoi grym a chefnogaeth i bobl anabl er mwyn iddynt gyfranogi mewn gweithgareddau cymdeithasol, hamdden, addysg a rhai yn gysylltiedig â gwaith, gan gynnwys cyfleoedd gwirfoddoli yn eu cymdogaethau lleol. Caiff pobl anabl eu cyfarwyddo at fudiad addas neu eu cysylltu ag un o'n hyfforddwyr cymwysedig sy'n darparu cefnogaeth pob pythefnos i gynorthwyo cleientiaid i gyfranogi yn y gweithgareddau hyn a thrwy hynny fagu hyder a chwrdd â phobl newydd. Rhoi grym i'r cleient er mwyn iddo gael hyder i wneud cysylltiadau a chael ffrindiau newydd yw bwriad y prosiect.

I gael rhagor o wybodaeth am gyrchu prosiect U Can! neu am wirfoddoli ar gyfer y prosiect, cysylltwch â Rachel Gibby trwy ffonio 01437 769422.

Are you over coming a substance misuse problem? Are you ready to move on to training and work? Trac have specialist advisers to help you!

Trac helps people of working age who have changed their drugs use sufficiently to enable them to enter training and employment for 16 or more hours per week and are unemployed or claiming benefits.

Others may have barriers to resolve and need longer periods of flexible and customised support to prepare them for work, which may include:

- Support on debt and homelessness
- Confidence building and motivation sessions
- Access to a pilot group 'work prep' initiatives
- Help with I.T, literacy and interviewing skills

DESPERATELY SEEKING VOLUNTEERS!

Mencap Stackpole Gardens is an organisation which aims to provide an environment and facilities where those with learning difficulties can develop social skills and practical skills, leading to personal development.
The organisation now urgently needs volunteers to work with students with learning disabilities who are studying for a qualification in gardening; the role requires volunteers to assist students with portfolio development for their coursework and with planning and maintaining garden plots. Expenses will be paid and transport may be available on the student bus.

St John's Hall, Pembroke Dock needs play assistants at its Parent and Toddler group, which is held every Friday morning between 10 and 12. The assistants will support the Parent and Toddler group by facilitating play; encouraging play activities such as group games; storytelling; speaking to parents; helping with refreshments, etc. Ongoing training and support will be provided.

Pembrokeshire Advocacy needs volunteers to sit on its management committee. In particular they need to recruit a Treasurer, but they would like to fill other committee roles as well. Volunteers should be interested in issues surrounding learning disability. Pembrokeshire Advocacy is an independent volunteer organisation with a principal aim of representing the individual interests of people with learning disabilities living in Pembrokeshire. The organisation avoids any conflicts of interest by remaining independent of statutory authorities. Its responsibilities remain solely with individuals that it supports. The organisation endeavours to:

- Protect people from physical, emotional or financial abuse.
- Support individuals to make decisions at major transactional points in their lives.
- Ensure people's legal rights and entitlements are observed.
- Ensure people receive a high quality service and that individual's wishes are respected and acted upon.

If you are interested in any of the above volunteering opportunities, please contact Volunteering Pembrokeshire on 01437 769422 or email volunteering@pavs.org.uk
