Build On What You're Into

Money, Money, Money!!!

Do you work with young people who would like to set up a group?

Would you like to encourage more young volunteers to join your existing group?

Does your group already have volunteers under the age of 25?

If you answered "Yes" to ANY of the above -

How would you like a grant of up to £7000??!!

The Millennium Volunteers programme is a Welsh Assembly Government initiative to support and encourage people between the ages of 16 and 24 to become involved in volunteering. Leonard Cheshire Workability

Leonard Cheshire's Workability programme lifts the barriers to computer training for people with disabilities. In partnership with companies, voluntary and public sector organisations, clients are given training via distance learning.
The programme is open to disabled people, aged between 19 and 60 who are unemployed and actively seeking employment. Training and equipment are provided free to successful applicants – only delivery costs and telephone calls to the internet need to be paid for . Clients may have the services of a computer volunteer to provide support in the process.
Training is provided through colleges offering a qualification in basic information technology. A personal tutor is allocated to each client by the college. In some cases a more personalised course may be offered where there are links to a local training partner.
More than a third of Workability graduates have already achieved a positive outcome. Outcomes range from paid employment, self employment and work experience, to further and higher education and voluntary work.

For more information about Workability, call Nigel Turner on 0207802 8283 or visit our website at www.workability.org.

DESPERATELY SEEKING VOLUNTEERS!

Pembrokeshire MIND is urgently seeking volunteers from all over Pembrokeshire to work on its Befriending Scheme. Befrienders are not professionals but are trained and supported in their work. It is not counselling, although the same care and attention may be offered; the basis of help is a "supportive relationship".

Pembrokeshire MIND works to encourage people experiencing emotional or mental health problems towards a more fulfilling life through developing mutually beneficial friendships and a network of support.

Meals on Wheels, a scheme run by the WRVS, also urgently needs volunteers throughout the county to deliver hot meals to their clients, especially in the following areas: Fishguard, Narberth, Haverfordwest and Milford Haven. Deliveries are at lunchtime for about one and a half hours daily, number of hours worked weekly can be negotiated.

If you can are interested in either of the above volunteering opportunities, please ring Volunteering Pembrokeshire on 01437 769422 or email volunteering@pavs.org.uk .

DESPERATELY SEEKING VOLUNTEERS!

ANGEN DYBRYD AM WIRFODDOLWYR

Mae MIND Sir Benfro yn chwilio am wirfoddolwyr ar frys o bob rhan o Sir Benfro i weithio ar gynllun Ymgyfeillio. Nid yw cyfeillion gwirfoddol yn bobl proffesiynol ond maent wedi eu hyfforddi ac yn derbyn cefnogaeth yn eu gwaith. Nid cynghori mohono, er gellir cynnig yr un gofal a sylw; “perthynas gefnogol” yw sail cymorth.

Mae MIND Sir Benfro’n gweithio i arwain pobl sy’n dioddef o broblemau emosiynol neu iechyd meddwl tuag at fywyd llawnach wrth ddatblygu cyfeillgarwch cyd-fuddiol a rhwydwaith o gefnogaeth.

Yn ogystal, mae Pryd ar glud, cynllun sydd yng ngofal y WRVS, yn chwilio am wirfoddolwyr ar frys o bob rhan o’r sir i ddosbarthu prydau poeth i’w cleientiaid, yn enwedig yn yr ardaloedd canlynol: Abergwaun, Arberth, Hwlffordd ac Aberdaugleddau. Dosberthir y bwyd amser cinio am tua awr a hanner yn ddyddiol, a gellir trafod y nifer o oriau a weithir yn wythnosol.

Os oes gennych ddiddordeb mewn unrhyw un o’r cyfleoedd gwirfoddoli uchod, ffoniwch ‘Volunteering Pembrokeshire’ ar 01437 769422 neu e-bostiwch volunteering@pavs.org.uk os gwelwch yn dda.
